NOTICE OF MOTION

TO: ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

3 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 25, 2019, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter as 4 they may be heard, if a hearing is required by the Court, Lead Plaintiff Arkansas Teacher 5 Retirement System (“ATRS” or “Lead Plaintiff”), on behalf of itself and all members of the 6 Settlement Class, will move this Court for an Order, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil 7 Procedure 23(a), (b)(3), and (e): (i) preliminarily approving a proposed settlement of the above-
8 captioned class action (the “Settlement”); (ii) certifying the Settlement Class pursuant to Rules 9 23(a) and (b)(3), and appointing Lead Plaintiff as Class Representative and the law firm of 10 Labaton Sucharow LLP as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class; (iii) directing that notice of 11 the Settlement be provided to the Settlement Class; (iv) scheduling a hearing to consider the 12 fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the Settlement, the proposed Plan of Allocation for 13 the Settlement proceeds, and Lead Counsel’s application for an award of attorneys’ fees and 14 expenses; and (v) granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
15 Defendants do not oppose the motion.

16 This motion is supported by the following memorandum of points and authorities, the 17 accompanying Declaration of Carol C. Villegas, dated November 30, 2018 (“Villegas 18 Declaration”) and the exhibits attached thereto, including the Stipulation and Agreement of 19 Settlement, dated as of November 30, 2018 (“Stipulation”), which is annexed as Exhibit 1.¹

20 A proposed Order Granting Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, 21 Approving Form and Manner of Notice, and Setting Date for Hearing on Final Approval of 22 Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), with annexed exhibits, which was negotiated by the 23 Parties, is also submitted herewith.

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE DECIDED

(1) Should the Court grant preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement on the terms set forth in the Stipulation?

²⁷ ¹ All capitalized terms used herein are defined in the Stipulation and have the same meanings as set forth therein. All references to “Ex.” herein are references to exhibits attached to the Villegas Declaration.

- (2) Should the Court preliminarily certify the Settlement Class for settlement purposes only and preliminarily appoint Lead Plaintiff as Class Representative and Labaton Sucharow as Class Counsel;
- (3) Should the Court approve the form and substance of the proposed Notice of Pendency of Class Action, Proposed Settlement, and Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses ("Notice"), Proof of Claim and Release form ("Claim Form"), and the Summary Notice of Pendency of Class Action, Proposed Settlement, and Motion for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses ("Summary Notice"), appended as Exhibits A-1 through A-3 to the proposed Preliminary Approval Order, as well as the manner of notifying the Settlement Class of the Settlement?
- (4) Should the Court schedule a hearing to determine whether the Settlement and Plan of Allocation should be finally approved and to consider Lead Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees and payment of expenses ("Settlement Hearing")?

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

12 ATRS, through its counsel Labaton Sucharow LLP (“Lead Counsel”), submits this 13 memorandum of points and authorities in support of its unopposed motion, pursuant to Federal 14 Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a), (b)(3), and (e), for preliminary approval of a proposed class 15 action settlement in the amount of $7,000,000 in cash, pursuant to the terms set forth in the 16 Stipulation, which will resolve this Action in its entirety. Lead Plaintiff, on behalf of itself and 17 all others similarly situated, entered into the Stipulation with each of the defendants in the 18 Action: Extreme Networks, Inc. (“Extreme” or the “Company”), and Charles W. Berger, 19 Kenneth B. Arola, and John T. Kurtzweil (collectively, the “Individual Defendants,” and, 20 together with Extreme, the “Defendants”).

21 Lead Plaintiff respectfully submits that the Settlement is a very good result for the 22 Settlement Class and should be preliminarily approved by the Court. The decision to settle was 23 informed by a comprehensive investigation, intensive motion practice, and extensive arm's-24 length negotiations overseen by a respected mediator. For the reasons stated herein, Lead 25 Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant this motion.

A. The Procedural History of the Case

27 Beginning in October of 2015, two securities class action complaints were filed in the 28 U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California (the “Court”) on behalf of investors in

1 Extreme.² On December 1, 2015, the Court issued orders consolidating the Extreme-related 2 securities actions (the “Action”). ECF No. 18. On June 28, 2016, the Court issued an Order 3 appointing ATRS as Lead Plaintiff and appointing Labaton Sucharow LLP as Lead Counsel and 4 Berman DeValerio³ as Liaison Counsel to represent the putative class. ECF No. 75.

5 The Consolidated Complaint in the Action was filed on September 26, 2016. ECF No.
 6 87. On November 10, 2017, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Consolidated Complaint, 7 which Lead Plaintiff opposed on December 23, 2016. ECF Nos. 89, 90. On January 20, 2017, 8 Defendants filed a reply brief in further support of their motion to dismiss. ECF No. 92. On 9 April 27, 2017, the Court issued an order granting Defendants’ motion to dismiss with leave to 10 amend. ECF No. 104.

11 The Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint was filed on June 2, 2017 (the 12 “Amended Complaint”). ECF No. 105. The Amended Complaint alleges violations of §§ 10(b)
 13 and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) and Rule 10b-5 14 promulgated thereunder by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on behalf of 15 a class of all purchasers of Extreme’s common stock and/or exchange-traded options from 16 September 12, 2013, through April 9, 2015, inclusive. On July 10, 2017, Defendants filed a 17 motion to dismiss the Amended Complaint, which Lead Plaintiff opposed on August 31, 2017.
 18 ECF Nos. 107, 112. On September 21, 2017, Defendants filed a reply brief in further support of 19 their motion to dismiss. ECF No. 113. On March 21, 2018, the Court issued an Order granting 20 in part and denying in part Defendants’ motion to dismiss. ECF No. 130. In particular, the Court 21 found that falsity and scienter were adequately pled with respect to only certain allegations.
 22 The Court granted the motion to dismiss with respect to Defendant Kurtzweil on the Section 23 10(b) claim, finding that he was not alleged to have made any surviving statements.

24 The Amended Complaint was based upon Lead Counsel’s extensive factual 25 investigation, which included, among other things, the review and analysis of: (i) documents 26

27 ² Hong v. Extreme Networks, Inc., et al., No. 5:15-cv-04883-BLF and Kasprzak v. Extreme 28 ³ Networks, Inc., et al., No. 5:15-cv-04975-BLF.

³ Berman DeValerio has since been renamed Berman Tabacco.

1 filed publicly by the Company with the SEC; (ii) publicly available information, including press 2 releases, news articles, and other public statements issued by or concerning the Company and 3 the Individual Defendants; (iii) research reports issued by financial analysts concerning the 4 Company; and (iv) other publicly available information and data concerning the Company.
 5 Lead Counsel's investigation also included contacting 148 former employees of Extreme and 6 other persons with relevant knowledge and interviewing 24 of them (seven of whom were relied 7 on in the Amended Complaint). Lead Counsel also consulted with an economics expert 8 regarding loss causation and damages, as well as an expert in the field of insider trading.

9 Following the denial, in part, of Defendants' motion to dismiss, the Parties negotiated a 10 case schedule that would see the case through summary judgment and commenced discovery.
 11 Lead Plaintiff served eighty-seven requests for the production of documents on Defendants on 12 April 30, 2018. Defendants served their responses and objections to Lead Plaintiff's document 13 requests on June 14, 2018. The Parties also exchanged initial disclosures on May 21, 2018.
 14 The Parties met and conferred extensively on the search terms that would be used to search for 15 documents responsive to Lead Plaintiff's requests for production, entered into an agreement for 16 the production of electronically stored information, and agreed to a protective order that would 17 govern the parties' disclosures in the Action.

18 B. Settlement Discussions

19 Beginning shortly after the Court's order denying, in part, Defendants' motion to 20 dismiss, the Parties began initial discussions concerning the possibility of a negotiated 21 resolution of the case. Defendants and Lead Plaintiff engaged Robert A. Meyer, Esq. ("Mr.
 22 Meyer"), a well-respected and highly experienced mediator, to assist them in exploring a 23 potential negotiated resolution of the claims in the Action. On July 18, 2018, Lead Plaintiff and 24 Defendants met with Mr. Meyer in an attempt to reach a settlement. The mediation involved an 25 extended effort to settle the claims and was preceded by the exchange of mediation statements 26 and Defendants' production of approximately 1,268 pages of documents, including Board of 27 Director minutes and presentations.

28

1 Following lengthy, arm's-length, and mediated negotiations under the auspices of Mr.
 2 Meyer, Defendants and Lead Plaintiff accepted a mediator's proposal concerning a settlement
 3 nearly a month later on August 17, 2018, and on September 26, 2018, the Parties entered into a 4 settlement term sheet.

5 C. The Proposed Settlement

6 The Stipulation was executed by the Parties on November 30, 2018. Pursuant to the 7 Stipulation, within twelve (12) business days after the later of (i) entry of the Preliminary 8 Approval Order and (ii) receipt of complete and accurate payment instructions and W-9 for the 9 Settlement Fund from Lead Counsel, Defendants shall pay, or cause to be paid, the Settlement 10 Amount into the Escrow Account. See Stipulation ¶ 6.

11 In exchange for this payment, upon the Effective Date of the Settlement, Lead Plaintiff 12 and each and every other Settlement Class Member, on behalf of themselves and each of their 13 respective heirs, executors, trustees, administrators, predecessors, successors, and assigns, shall 14 be deemed to have fully, finally, and forever waived, released, discharged, and dismissed each 15 and every one of the Released Claims against each and every one of the Released Defendant 16 Parties and shall forever be barred and enjoined from commencing, instituting, prosecuting, or 17 maintaining any and all of the Released Claims against any and all of the Released Defendant 18 Parties. See Stipulation ¶ 4. The definition of Released Claims and Unknown Claims has been 19 tailored to release only claims that relate to transactions in Extreme publicly traded common 20 stock and/or exchange-traded options on such common stock during the Class Period⁴ that were 21 raised, or could have been raised, by Class Members in the Action. See Stipulation ¶¶ 1(aa) &
 22 (nn). Although the Court granted the motion to dismiss with respect to alleged misstatements 23 prior to February 4, 2014, the Settlement utilizes the originally pled Class Period to avoid 24 collateral litigation of the claims raised in the Action that would undermine the key reason for 25 the Settlement – providing the Parties with “complete peace.” Defendants will also release all 26

⁴ The Class Period means the period from September 12, 2013 through April 9, 2015, inclusive.
 28 See Stipulation ¶ 1(e). This is the same class period as is alleged in the Amended Complaint.

1 claims that Defendants could have asserted against any of the Released Plaintiff Parties that 2 arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the claims in the 3 Action. See Stipulation ¶¶ 1(cc).

4 Pursuant to Rule 23(e)(3), the only agreements made by the Parties in connection with 5 the Settlement are the September 26, 2018 term sheet, the Stipulation, and the confidential 6 Supplemental Agreement, dated as of September 26, 2018, concerning the circumstances under 7 which Extreme may terminate the Settlement based upon the number of exclusion requests. See 8 Stipulation ¶ 40. It is standard to keep such agreements confidential so that a large investor, or 9 a group of investors, cannot intentionally try to leverage a better recovery for themselves by 10 threatening to opt out, at the expense of the class. The Supplemental Agreement can be provided 11 to the Court in camera or under seal.

12 After approval of the Settlement and approval of the Plan of Allocation for the proceeds 13 of the Settlement, the proposed Claims Administrator, KCC LLC (“KCC”), will process all 14 claims received and will apply the plan of allocation approved by the Court at the Settlement 15 Hearing. At the completion of the administration, KCC will distribute the Net Settlement Fund 16 to eligible claimants, and will continue to do so as long as it is economically feasible to make 17 distributions. See Stipulation ¶ 26. This is not a “claims-made” settlement and the entire $7 18 million Settlement Amount is for the benefit of the Settlement Class, regardless of how many 19 claims are submitted. Id. ¶ 12. When it is no longer feasible to make additional distributions, 20 because of the de minimis amount of funds left in the Net Settlement Fund, Lead Plaintiff 21 proposes that the unclaimed balance be donated to the non-profit, non-sectarian organization 22 Consumer Federation of America, discussed below. Id. ¶ 26. The Settlement does not contain 23 any reversion to Defendants. Id. ¶ 12.

24 D. Proposed Schedule of Events

25 Lead Plaintiff respectfully proposes the following schedule for the various Settlement-26 related events, each of which is reflected in the proposed Preliminary Approval Order:

27	Deadline for mailing individual Notices and Claim Forms (the “Notice Date”)	10 business days after entry of the Preliminary Approval Order (“Notice Date”)
----	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

1	Deadline for publication of Summary Notice in Investor's Business Daily and transmission over PR Newswire	Within 14 calendar days of the Notice Date
3	Deadline for filing motions in support of the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and Lead Counsel's application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses	No later than 35 calendar days before the Settlement Hearing
6	Deadline for submission of requests for exclusion from the Settlement Class; or objections to the Settlement, Plan of Allocation, or Lead Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses	No later than 21 calendar days before the Settlement Hearing
10	Deadline for filing reply papers in support of the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or Lead Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses	No later than 7 calendar days before the Settlement Hearing
13	Deadline for submission of Claim Forms	Postmarked or received no later than 7 calendar days before the Settlement Hearing
15	Settlement Hearing	At the Court's convenience, but no fewer than 100 calendar days after the date of the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order

18 The foregoing schedule is similar to those used and approved by numerous courts in 19 securities class action settlements and complies with the Ninth Circuit's ruling in In re Mercury 20 Interactive Corp. Sec. Litig., 618 F.3d 988 (9th Cir. 2010) (requiring that fee motion be made 21 available to the class before the deadline for objecting to the fee) and the recently revised 22 Procedural Guidance for Class Action Settlements, see https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/
 23 news/236. In terms of the amount of time that Class Members will have to object or request 24 exclusion, if the Settlement Hearing is held 100 calendar days from entry of the Preliminary 25 Approval Order, the Notice, which contains information about the Settlement and Lead 26 Counsel's request for fees and expenses, will be issued 86 days before the hearing. Settlement 27 Class Members will have 65 days to review the Notice before the objection/exclusion deadline 28 and also 14 days to consider the filed versions of the motions in support of approval of the 1 Settlement and approval of Lead Counsel's fee and expense motion, which will be filed with the 2 Court and posted on the Settlement website and Lead Counsel's website.

3 ARGUMENT

4 I. THE SETTLEMENT MERITS PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

5 As a matter of public policy, settlement is a strongly favored method for resolving 6 disputes, especially in complex class actions. See, e.g., In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 516 F.3d 7 1095, 1101 (9th Cir. 2008) ("[T]here is a strong judicial policy that favors settlements, 8 particularly where complex class action litigation is concerned.") (citation omitted); Grant v.
 9 Capital Mgmt. Servs., L.P., No. 10-cv-2471-WQH (BGS), 2013 WL 6499698, at *2 (S.D. Cal.
 10 Dec. 11, 2013) ("Voluntary conciliation and settlement are the preferred means of dispute 11 resolution in complex class action litigation.") (citation omitted).

12 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 requires court approval for any settlement of a class 13 action. Approval of class action settlements proceeds in two stages: (i) preliminary approval, 14 followed by notice to the class; and (ii) final approval. See, e.g., Noll v. eBay, Inc., 309 F.R.D.
 15 593, 602 (N.D. Cal. 2015); West v. Circle K Stores, Inc., No. 04-cv-438 WBS (GGH), 2006 WL
 16 1652598, at *2 (E.D. Cal. June 13, 2006); Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth) § 13.14
 17 (2004). By this motion, Lead Plaintiff requests that the Court take the first step in the approval 18 process: preliminary approval of the Settlement.

19 Effective December 1, 2018, Rule 23(e) has been amended to, among other things, 20 specify that the crux of a court's preliminary approval evaluation is whether notice should be 21 provided to the class given the likelihood that the court will be able to finally approve the 22 settlement and certify the class. Rule 23(e)(B).⁵ As has long been recognized, the preliminary

24 ⁵ In connection with final approval of the Settlement, the Court will be asked to review the 25 following core factors identified by amended Rule 23(e)(2), whether: (a) Lead Plaintiff and 26 Lead Counsel adequately represented the class; (b) the Settlement was negotiated at arm's-27 length; (c) the relief provided to the class is adequate; and (d) the proposal treats class members 28 equitably relative to each other. In assessing these core factors, the Court may also consider the Ninth Circuit's long-standing approval factors, many of which overlap with the Rule 23 considerations: "(1) the strength of the plaintiffs' case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of

1 approval standard involves “both a procedural and a substantive component.” Young v. Polo
 2 Retail, LLC, No. 02-cv-4546 VRW, 2006 WL 3050861, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 25, 2006). As the 3 court in Young explained:

4 If the proposed settlement appears to be the product of serious, informed, non-5 collusive negotiations, has no obvious deficiencies, does not improperly grant 6 preferential treatment to class representatives or segments of the class, and falls 7 within the range of possible approval, then the court should direct that the notice 8 be given to the class members of a formal fairness hearing. . . .

 11 Cal. Oct. 27, 2015) (granting preliminary approval after finding proposed settlement was “non-12 collusive,” “lacks obvious deficiencies,” and was “within the range of possible approval”).

13 A court “need not conduct a full settlement fairness appraisal before granting 14 preliminary approval.” Grant, 2013 WL 6499698, at *5 (citation and internal quotations 15 omitted). “The Court cannot fully assess all of [the] fairness factors until after the final 16 approval hearing. . . . Instead, ‘the settlement need only be potentially fair, as the Court will 17 make a final determination of its adequacy at the hearing on Final Approval, after such time as 18 any party has had a chance to object and/or opt out.’” Zynga Inc., 2015 WL 6471171, at *8 19 (internal citations omitted). Applying the standards set forth above, the Settlement should be 20 preliminarily approved.

21 A. The Settlement Is the Result of Thorough and Arm’s-Length Efforts 22 by Adequate Representatives

23 Courts have long-recognized that there is an initial presumption that a proposed 24 settlement is fair and reasonable when it is the “product of arms-length negotiations.” In re

7 Here, the Parties have vigorously investigated the Action since its inception and the 8 Settlement was achieved only after diligent arm's-length mediated negotiations between counsel 9 with considerable knowledge and expertise in the field of federal securities law, including 10 securities fraud class actions under the Securities Exchange Act. Before and during the 11 mediation, the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiff's and Defendants' respective claims and 12 defenses were explored by the Parties. Lead Counsel developed a deep understanding of the 13 facts of the case and merits of the claims through their analysis of, inter alia: (i) publicly 14 available information regarding the Company and interviews of former employees and third 15 parties; (ii) briefing on Defendants' motions to dismiss; (iii) analysis of Defendants' mediation 16 statement and exhibits; (iv) documents produced by Defendants in advance of and at the 17 mediation; and (v) consultations with experts in insider trading and damages and loss causation.

18 Lead Plaintiff ATRS is an extremely sophisticated institutional investor, which provides 19 retirement, disability, and survivor benefits to employees of Arkansas public schools and 20 educationally related agencies and manages more than $14 billion in assets for those 21 beneficiaries. See, e.g., ECF No. 30. It has been appointed lead plaintiff in numerous securities 22 class actions and purchased more than 300,000 shares of Extreme common stock during the 23 Class Period. See ECF No. 30-1 & 30-2. With an informed understanding, the Lead Plaintiff 24 agreed to the Settlement. There has been no collusion.

25 Additionally, throughout the Action, Lead Plaintiff had the benefit of the advice of 26 knowledgeable counsel well-versed in shareholder class action litigation and securities fraud 27 cases. Labaton Sucharow is among the most experienced and skilled firms in the securities 28 litigation field, and has a long and successful track record in such cases. See Ex. 2. Labaton

5 Courts give considerable weight to the opinion of experienced and informed counsel.

 7 5382544, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 22, 2008) (“[S]ignificant weight should be attributed to 8 counsel’s belief that settlement is in the best interest of those affected by the settlement.”). In In 9 re Omnivision Techs., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 1036, 1043 (N.D. Cal. 2008), the court held that the 10 recommendation of counsel weighed in favor of settlement given their familiarity with the 11 dispute and their significant experience in securities litigation. Lead Counsel’s belief in the 12 fairness and reasonableness of the Settlement supports preliminary approval.

13 B. The Relief Provided by the Settlement Is Adequate and the Settlement 14 Is Well Within the Range of Reasonableness

15 This Settlement is well within the range of reasonableness for several reasons.

16 First, the Settlement presents a favorable recovery when compared to the median 17 settlement value in securities class action settlements in 2017, which was reported by 18 Cornerstone Research to be $5 million. See, Laarni T. Bulan, Ellen M. Ryan, and Laura E.
 19 Simmons, Securities Class Action Settlements – 2017 Review and Analysis, at 3 (Cornerstone 20 Research 2018), attached as Ex. 3 to the Villegas Declaration.

21 Second, Lead Plaintiff’s damages expert has estimated that if liability were established 22 with respect to all of the remaining claims, including for the three remaining alleged corrective 23 disclosures, the maximum aggregate damages recoverable at trial based on the non-24 disaggregated stock price declines on the disclosures dates would be approximately $94.5 25 million to $140 million, depending on whether pre-Class Period gains were considered and 26 removed. Using the originally pled Class Period of September 12, 2013 through April 9, 2015, 27 which includes the February 5, 2014 disclosure dismissed by the Court, maximum non-28 disaggregated damages were estimated by Lead Plaintiff’s consulting damages expert to have

1 been approximately $145 million to $242 million, depending on whether pre-Class Period gains 2 were considered and removed. Accordingly, the Settlement recovers between approximately 3 3% and 7% of maximum damages. Since the passage of the Private Securities Litigation 4 Reform Act of 1995 (“PSLRA”), courts have approved settlements that recovered a similar, or 5 smaller, percentage of maximum damages. See, e.g., Schuler v. Medicines Co., No. 14 Civ.
 6 1149, 2016 WL 3457218, at *8 (D.N.J. June 24, 2016) (approving $4,250,000 settlement that 7 reflected approximately 4.0% of estimated recoverable damages and noting percentage “falls 8 squarely within the range of previous settlement approvals”); In re Par Pharm. Sec. Litig., No.
 9 06 Civ 3226, 2013 WL 3930091, at *2 (D.N.J. July 29, 2013) (approving settlement of $8.1 10 million, amounting to approximately 7% of class-wide damages); Int'l Bhd. of Elec. Workers 11 Local 697 Pension Fund v. Int'l Game Tech., Inc., No. 09-cv-00419-MMD-WGC, 2012 WL 12 5199742, at *2-3 (D. Nev. Oct. 19, 2012) (approving $12.5 million settlement recovering about 13 3.5% of the maximum damages that plaintiffs believed could be recovered at trial and noting 14 that the amount was within the median recovery in securities class actions settled in the last few 15 years); McPhail v. First Command Fin. Planning, Inc., No. 05-cv-179-IEG-JMA, 2009 WL 16 839841, at *5 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 30, 2009) (finding a $12 million settlement recovering 7% of 17 estimated damages was fair and adequate); Omnivision, 559 F. Supp. 2d at 1042 ($13.75 million 18 settlement yielding 6% of potential damages after deducting fees and costs was “higher than the 19 median percentage of investor losses recovered in recent shareholder class action settlements”).

20 Importantly, the maximum estimates assume that Lead Plaintiff would be able to prove 21 damages based on all alleged corrective disclosures remaining in the Action and that it would 22 not need to disaggregate, or parse out, confounding non-fraud related information on those 23 dates. However, had the case proceeded, Defendants would have strenuously argued for the 24 exclusion of each of the alleged corrective disclosures on the grounds Lead Plaintiff could not 25 sufficiently link each to Defendants’ alleged fraud. Defendants would have further argued that 26 each disclosure should be excluded because the market was already aware of the truth allegedly 27 disclosed such that there was no price impact. And lastly, they would have argued that 28 Extreme’s stock price reacted to timely disclosed financial results unrelated to the alleged fraud

1 – financial results that, when disaggregated, significantly reduce the amount of alleged 2 damages. If these arguments prevailed at class certification, summary judgment, or trial, the 3 Settlement Class could have recovered significantly less or, indeed, nothing.

4 Third, the Settlement represents a prompt and substantial tangible recovery, without the 5 considerable risk, expense, and delay of completing extensive fact and expert discovery and 6 prevailing at class certification, summary judgment, trial, and post-trial litigation. See, e.g., In 7 re LinkedIn User Privacy Litig., 309 F.R.D. 573, 587 (N.D. Cal. 2015) (“Generally, unless the 8 settlement is clearly inadequate, its acceptance and approval are preferable to lengthy and 9 expensive litigation with uncertain results.”) (citation omitted); In re Wash. Pub. Power Supply 10 Sys. Sec. Litig., MDL No. 551, 1988 WL 158947, at *4 (W.D. Wash. July 28, 1988) (finding 11 settlement to be in the “best interests of the class . . . before it is subjected further to the vagaries 12 of litigation”). While Lead Plaintiff believes it could have succeeded in establishing each of the 13 elements of the alleged claims, it faced considerable obstacles in continuing the Action.

14 For instance, if the case were to proceed, Lead Plaintiff would have had to brief, argue,
 15 and the Court would be called to rule on, Lead Plaintiff’s anticipated motion for class 16 certification. Even once a class was certified, Defendants would have likely challenged 17 certification in a Rule 23(f) petition to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.
 18 At the close of discovery, Defendants would likely have sought summary judgment, focusing on 19 expert and fact evidence of a lack of price impact, and a complex attack on the presumption of 20 reliance that counsel for Defendants have successfully pioneered in this district. See In re 21 Finisar Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 5:11-CV-01252-EJD, 2017 WL 6026244, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 5, 22 reconsideration denied, No. 5:11-CV-01252-EJD, 2018 WL 3472334 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 18, 23 2018), and leave to appeal denied sub nom., Oklahoma Firefighters Pension & Ret. Sys. v.
 24 Finisar Corp., No. 18-80013, 2018 WL 3472714 (9th Cir. July 13, 2018). There was no 25 guarantee that the proposed class would prevail in Defendants’ continuous challenges and, even 26 if they did, how the Court’s rulings would affect damages or how the case would be presented 27 to the jury. At the very least, the prospect of appeal from any ruling was high.

28 These risks aside, discovery would have been protracted and, assuming Lead Plaintiff

1 defeated Defendants' eventual motion for summary judgment, the trial of Lead Plaintiff's 2 claims would inevitably be complex and long, and even a favorable verdict would undoubtedly 3 spur a lengthy post-trial and appellate process.

4 Accordingly, in light of the substantial risks and expense of continued litigation, and 5 compared to the certain and prompt recovery of $7,000,000, the Settlement is a good result that 6 is well within the range of reasonableness. See, e.g., Orvis v. Spokane Cty, 281 F.R.D. 469, 475 7 (E.D. Wash. 2012) ("the proposed benefit to class members appears to the Court to be within 8 the range of fair and reasonable compensation given the uncertain outcome of the legal 9 arguments and the risks and probable delay for Plaintiff and class members if litigation were to 10 proceed toward trial"); Lo v. Oxnard European Motors, LLC, No. 11-cv-1009 JLS (MDD), 11 2011 WL 6300050, at *5 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 15, 2011) (addressing preliminary approval and stating 12 that "[c]onsidering the potential risks and expenses associated with continued prosecution of 13 the Lawsuit, the probability of appeals, the certainty of delay, and the ultimate uncertainty of 14 recovery through continued litigation,' the Court finds that, on balance, the proposed settlement 15 is fair, reasonable, and adequate") (alteration in original) (citation omitted).

16 For all the foregoing reasons, Lead Plaintiff respectfully submits that the relief provided 17 in the Settlement is more than adequate.

18 C. Proposed Plan of Allocation for Distributing Relief to the 19 Settlement Class Treats Settlement Class Members Equitably

20 At the final Settlement Hearing, the Court will be asked to approve the proposed Plan of 21 Allocation for distributing the proceeds of the Settlement to eligible claimants. The Plan of 22 Allocation, which is reported in full in the Notice, was drafted with the assistance of Lead 23 Plaintiff's damages expert, based on the measure of damages for claims under the Exchange Act
 24 and is a fair, reasonable, and adequate method for allocating the proceeds of the Settlement 25 amongst eligible claimants. See Notice, pp. 17 to 26. It treats all Settlement Class Members, 26 including the Lead Plaintiff, equitably.

27 Here, the Plan of Allocation is designed to equitably distribute the Settlement proceeds 28 among members of the Settlement Class who were allegedly injured by Defendants' alleged

1 misrepresentations and who submit valid Claim Forms. The Plan provides for the calculation of 2 a “Recognized Loss” amount for each properly documented purchase or acquisition of Extreme 3 common stock and/or exchange traded options during the Class Period. A claimant’s total 4 Recognized Losses will depend on, among other things, when their shares and/or exchange
 5 traded options were purchased and/or sold during the Class Period in relation to the disclosure 6 dates alleged in the Action, whether the shares were held through or sold during the statutory 7 90-day look-back period, see 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(e) (providing methodology for limiting 8 damages in securities fraud actions), and the value of the shares when they were sold or held.

9 The Recognized Loss formulas are tied to liability and damages. In developing the Plan 10 of Allocation, the Lead Plaintiff’s damages expert considered the amount of artificial inflation
 11 allegedly present in Extreme’s common stock and exchange traded options throughout the Class 12 Period that was purportedly caused by the alleged fraud. Shares purchased before February 5, 13 2014 and held through this disclosure will be valued using 20% of the alleged artificial 14 inflation, given the Court’s dismissal of these claims and the particular challenges to being able 15 to establish liability and damages. An inflation table was created and is reported in the Notice 16 as part of the Plan of Allocation. The table will be utilized by the Claims Administrator in 17 calculating Recognized Loss amounts for claimants.

18 The Claims Administrator will calculate claimants’ Recognized Losses using the 19 transactional information provided by claimants in their claim forms, which can be mailed to the 20 Claims Administrator, submitted online using the settlement website, or, for large investors, 21 with hundreds of transactions, via e-mail to the Claims Administrator’s electronic filing team.
 22 Because most securities are held in “street name” by the brokers that buy them on behalf of 23 clients, the Claims Administrator, Lead Counsel, and Defendants do not have Settlement Class 24 Members’ transactional data and a claims process is required. Because the Settlement does not 25 recover 100% of alleged damages, the Claims Administrator will determine each eligible 26 claimant’s pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund based upon each claimant’s total 27
 28

1 “Recognized Claim” compared to the aggregate Recognized Claims of all eligible claimants.⁶

2 Once the Claims Administrator has processed all submitted claims, notified claimants of 3 deficiencies or ineligibility, processed responses, and made claim determinations, distributions 4 will be made to eligible claimants in the form of checks and wire transfers. After an initial 5 distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, if there is any balance remaining in the Net Settlement
 6 Fund (whether by reason of tax refunds, uncashed checks or otherwise) after at least six (6) 7 months from the date of initial distribution, Lead Counsel will, if feasible and economical, re-8 distribute the balance among eligible claimants who have cashed their checks. These re-9 distributions will be repeated until the balance in the Net Settlement Fund is no longer feasible
 10 to distribute. See Stipulation ¶ 26. Any balance that still remains in the Net Settlement Fund 11 after re-distribution(s), which is not feasible or economical to reallocate, after payment of any 12 outstanding Notice and Administration Expenses or Taxes, will be donated to Consumer 13 Federation of America (“CFA”), which has programs that assist consumers dealing with 14 financial fraud. Id. Neither Lead Plaintiff nor Lead Counsel is affiliated with CFA.

15 Consumer Federation of America is a non-profit, consumer advocacy organization 16 established in 1968 to advance consumer interests through policy research, advocacy, and 17 education before the judiciary, Congress, the White House, federal and state regulatory 18 agencies, and state legislatures. See generally www.consumerfed.org. With respect to victims 19 of financial fraud, CFA has an Investor Protection program that works nationwide to promote 20 consumer-oriented policies that safeguard investors against fraud through: (i) the development 21 of educational material for investors; (ii) drafting policies and legislation; 22 (iii) and providing testimony and comments on legislation and regulations. See 23 www.consumerfed.org/issues/investor-protection. CFA has been approved as a cy pres 24 beneficiary in several securities cases in California, including In re Vocera Commc’ns, Inc. Sec.

 26
 27 ⁶ Because eligible claimants will be receiving their pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund 28 and their individual recoveries will depend on the value of all other eligible claimants’ recoveries, which will change on a daily basis as claims are processed and verified, it would not be feasible to have the website provide estimates of claim amounts for each class member.

3 D. Anticipated Legal Fees and Expenses

4 As set forth in the Notice, Lead Counsel intends to move for attorneys' fees of no more 5 than 25% of the Settlement Fund and litigation expenses of no more than $230,000, which may 6 include a modest application for reimbursement by the Lead Plaintiff pursuant to the PSLRA.

7 A 25% fee would amount to $1,750,000, which is substantially less than the value of the 8 time that Plaintiff's Counsel have expended in this case and is the 25% "benchmark" recognized 9 within the Ninth Circuit. The requested fee would provide a significant negative "multiplier" to 10 Plaintiff's Counsel. The basis of Lead Counsel's fee and expense request will be detailed in 11 their upcoming motion requesting fees and expenses however, to date, Labaton Sucharow's 12 "lodestar" is approximately $3.4 million.⁷

13 Lead Counsel's maximum expense figure is based upon total-to-date expenses of 14 approximately $230,000, which include the amounts below, plus a "cushion" to cover a modest 15 PSLRA reimbursement request for the Lead Plaintiff and to cover incurred expenses that have 16 not yet been invoiced or expenses that will be incurred between now and Lead Counsel's 17 motion for fees and expenses:

Category	Amount
Experts/Consultants	$70,000.00
Mediation	$6,100.00
Court Hearing/ Deposition Reporting	$1,000.00
Long-Distance Telephone/ Conference Calling/Facsimile	$500.00
Postage/FedEx/Messengers	$2,000.00
Electronic Research	$28,000.00

27
 28 ⁷ Lead Counsel is in the process of doing a final review of its time, and the final figure presented in its motion requesting fees may differ.

1	Work-Related Transportation/ Meals/Hotels	$56,000.00
2	Filing & Service Fees	$3,100.00
3	Duplicating	$15,500.00
4	TOTAL	$182,200.00

With respect to Notice and Administration Expenses, the Claims Administrator currently estimates that its fees and expenses in connection with the Settlement notices and claims process may be in the range of $400,000 to $600,000.⁸ This estimate assumes, among other things, that approximately 150,000 notice packets of 18 pages (consisting of a Notice and Claim Form) will be mailed and that 30,000 claims will be received.⁹ In the event that actual experience differs from these assumptions, the administrative fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Settlement will differ from this estimate. Notice and Administration Expenses will be paid from the Settlement Fund. See Stipulation ¶ 9. Before the Settlement reaches its Effective Date, no more than $500,000 in Notice and Administration expenses may be paid. Id. ¶ 21.

II. THE COURT SHOULD PRELIMINARILY CERTIFY THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

A. Standards Applicable to Class Certification

At the Settlement Hearing, the Court will be asked to grant final approval of the Settlement on behalf of the Settlement Class, which is defined as “all persons and entities that ⁸ This estimate is commensurate with the costs of other comparable administrations that Lead Counsel has overseen. See Exhibit 4.

⁹ The estimated number of notice packets is based on KCC’s analysis of the potential size of the class using a forecasting model that evaluates the average trading volume over the Class Period and past matters of similar size with a similar issuer. Class sizes in cases involving publicly traded securities remain rough estimates until all identified brokers and nominees have responded with completed lists of beneficial shareholder counts.

The conversion of approximately 20% of notices to claim forms is a very standard assumption in securities cases, although this does not mean that 80% of the class will not recover. In fact, institutional investors may submit only a few hundred claims, however those claims typically represent thousands of transactions and the majority of the damages suffered by the class.

1 purchased or otherwise acquired the publicly traded common stock and exchange-traded call 2 options, and/or sold put options, of Extreme during the period from September 12, 2013 through 3 April 9, 2015, inclusive, and who were damaged thereby,” excluding those expressly identified 4 in ¶ 1(hh) of the Stipulation.¹⁰ For that reason, and pursuant to the upcoming amendments to 5 Rule 23(e), it is appropriate for the Court to consider, at the preliminary approval stage, whether 6 certification of the Settlement Class is appropriate. See Jaffe v. Morgan Stanley & Co., No. C 7 06-3903 (TEH), 2008 WL 346417, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 7, 2008).

8 Defendants have agreed to certification of the Settlement Class solely for purposes of the 9 Settlement. Stipulation ¶ 3. If the case had continued to be litigated, Defendants would have 10 contested several of the elements of certification and they reserve their rights to do so if the 11 Settlement were to be terminated or not reach its Effective Date and the case were to continue.

12 Courts have acknowledged the propriety of certifying a class solely for purposes of a 13 class action settlement. See Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S. 591, 620 (1997).
 14 Indeed, in the Ninth Circuit, “Rule 23 is to be liberally construed in a securities fraud context 15 because class actions are particularly effective in serving as private policing weapons against 16 corporate wrongdoing.” In re Cooper Cos. Sec. Litig., 254 F.R.D. 628, 642 (C.D. Cal. 2009)
 17 (citation and internal quotation marks omitted); see also In re THQ Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 00-18 1783AHM(EX), 2002 WL 1832145, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Mar. 22, 2002) (“[T]he law in the Ninth 19 Circuit is very well established that the requirements of Rule 23 should be liberally construed in 20 favor of class action cases brought under the federal securities laws.”) (citations omitted).

21 A settlement class, like other certified classes, must satisfy all the requirements of Rule 22 23(a) and (b). See Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1022 (9th Cir. 1998).
 23 Nevertheless, the manageability concerns of Rule 23(b)(3) are not at issue for a settlement class.
 24 See Amchem Prods., 521 U.S. at 593 (“Whether trial would present intractable management 25 problems . . . is not a consideration when settlement-only certification is requested.”). As 26

27 _____
 28 ¹⁰ As mentioned above, the definition of the Settlement Class is consistent with the definition of the class proposed in the Amended Complaint.

1 discussed below, the Action satisfies all the factors for certification.

2 B. The Settlement Class Meets the Requirements of Rule 23(a)

3 1. Rule 23(a): Numerosity

4 Rule 23(a)(1) requires that the class be so numerous that joinder of all members is 5 impracticable. “[I]mpracticability does not mean ‘impossibility,’ but only the difficulty or 6 inconvenience of joining all members of the class.” Harris v. Palm Springs Alpine Estates, Inc., 7 329 F.2d 909, 913-14 (9th Cir. 1964) (citation omitted). There is no fixed number of class 8 members which either compels or precludes the certification of a class. Arnold v. United Artists
 9 Theatre Circuit, Inc., 158 F.R.D. 439, 448 (N.D. Cal. 1994). In securities litigation, courts 10 regularly find the numerosity requirement is satisfied with respect to putative purchasers of 11 nationally traded securities on the volume of outstanding shares. See Howell v. JBI, Inc., 298 12 F.R.D. 649, 654-55 (D. Nev. 2014) (“in securities cases, when millions of shares are traded 13 during the proposed class period, a court may infer that the numerosity requirement is 14 satisfied”); Cooper Cos., 254 F.R.D. at 634 (“The Court certainly may infer that, when a 15 corporation has millions of shares trading on a national exchange, more than 40 individuals 16 purchased stock over the course of more than a year. It is likely that thousands of people made 17 such purchases.”).

18 Here, there can be no dispute that the Settlement Class satisfies numerosity and consists 19 of (at least) thousands of investors. Throughout the Class Period, Extreme common stock traded 20 actively on the NASDAQ under the ticker symbol “EXTR.” During the Class Period, there were 21 approximately 94 million to 100 million shares of Extreme common stock outstanding. See 22 Complaint ¶ 413. Common sense dictates that these shares were purchased by thousands of 23 investors, making joinder impracticable.

24 2. Rule 23(a)(2): Questions of Law or Fact Are Common

25 Rule 23(a)(2) requires the existence of “questions of law or fact common to the class.”
 26 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2). The Ninth Circuit construes this requirement “permissively,” and has 27 stated that “[a]ll questions of fact and law need not be common to satisfy the rule.”
 28 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1019.

Securities fraud cases have long been found to satisfy the commonality requirement:

The overwhelming weight of authority holds that repeated misrepresentations of the sort alleged here satisfy the “common question” requirement. Confronted with a class of purchasers allegedly defrauded over a period of time by similar misrepresentations, courts have taken the common sense approach that the class is united by a common interest in determining whether a defendant’s course of conduct is in its broad outlines actionable, which is not defeated by slight differences in class members’ positions, and that the issue may profitably be tried in one suit.

Blackie v. Barrack, 524 F.2d 891, 902 (9th Cir. 1975); see also In re Juniper Networks, Inc. Sec. Litig., 264 F.R.D. 584, 588 (N.D. Cal. 2009) (“Repeated misrepresentations by a company to its stockholders satisfy the commonality requirement of Rule 23(a)(2).”).

In this case, common questions of law and fact abound. The central questions—whether Defendants' statements during the Class Period regarding the success of Extreme's post-acquisition integration with its former competitor, Enterasys Networks, as well as developments in Extreme's key partnership with Lenovo Group, Ltd. were false and misleading and whether Defendants acted with the requisite mental state—are the same for all class members.

3. Rule 23(a)(3): Lead Plaintiff's Claims Are Typical

Rule 23(a)(3) is satisfied where the claims of the proposed class representatives arise from the same course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of the other class members, and where the claims are based on the same legal theory. In re Comput. Memories Sec. Litig., 111 F.R.D. 675, 680 (N.D. Cal. 1986). Rule 23(a)(3) does not require plaintiffs to show that their claims are identical on every issue to those of the class, but merely that significant common questions exist. In re Syncor ERISA Litig., 227 F.R.D. 338, 344 (C.D. Cal. 2005). Differences in the amount of damages, the size or manner of purchase, type of purchase, and even the specific documents influencing the purchase will not render the claim atypical in most securities actions. See Tsirekidze v. Syntax-Brillian Corp., No. CV-07-02204-PHX-FJM, 2009 WL 2151838, at *4 (D. Ariz. July 17, 2009).

Here, Lead Plaintiff's claims are typical to those of the other Members of the Settlement Class. Like all Settlement Class Members, Lead Plaintiff purchased the publicly traded common stock of Extreme during the Class Period and claims to have suffered damages when 1 Defendants' alleged material misstatements and omissions were revealed.

2 4. Rule 23(a)(4): The Lead Plaintiff Is Adequate

3 Rule 23(a)(4) is satisfied if "the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect 4 the interests of the class." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4). "The proper resolution of this issue requires 5 that two questions be addressed: (a) do the named plaintiffs and their counsel have any 6 conflicts of interest with other class members and (b) will the named plaintiffs and their counsel 7 prosecute the action vigorously on behalf of the class?" In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 8 F.3d 454, 462 (9th Cir. 2000) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1020).

9 Here, as mentioned above, Lead Plaintiff is a sophisticated institutional investor that has 10 and will continue to represent the interests of the Settlement Class fairly and adequately. There 11 is no antagonism or conflict of interest between Lead Plaintiff and the proposed Settlement 12 Class. Lead Plaintiff and Members of the Settlement Class share the common objective of 13 maximizing their recovery from Defendants when considering the totality of the relevant 14 circumstances. Lead Counsel also has extensive experience and expertise in complex securities 15 litigation and class action proceedings throughout the United States.¹¹ Lead Counsel is well 16 qualified and able to conduct the Action and has ably and effectively represented Lead Plaintiff
 17 and the proposed Settlement Class throughout the Action.¹²

18 C. The Settlement Class Meets the Requirements of Rule 23(b)(3)

19 1. Common Questions of Law or Fact Predominate

20 Rule 23(b)(3) sets forth two requirements, the first being that the "questions of law or 21 fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only 22 individual members." Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3). The predominance inquiry "tests whether 23

24 ¹¹ See Lead Counsel's Firm Resume (Ex. 2); see also In re Bear Stearns Cos. Sec., Derivative,

25 & ERISA Litig., No. 07-Civ-10453, 2009 WL 50132, at *10 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 5, 2009) (Labaton 26 Sucharow has "substantial experience in the prosecution of shareholder and securities class 27 actions").

28 ¹² Accordingly, Lead Counsel should also be appointed Class Counsel under Rule 23(g)(1). See, 29 e.g., Williams v. Costco Wholesale Corp., No. O2cv2003 IEG (AJB), 2010 WL 761122, at *6 30 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 4, 2010) (appointing as Class Counsel attorneys who, as here, have "extensive 31 experience in class actions" and appeared "competent to represent the class").

1 proposed classes are sufficiently cohesive to warrant adjudication by representation.” Amchem 2 Prods., 521 U.S. at 623. “When common questions present a significant aspect of the case and 3 they can be resolved for all members of the class in a single adjudication, there is clear 4 justification for handling the dispute on a representative rather than on an individual basis.”
 5 Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1022 (quoting 7A Charles Alan Wright, Arthur R. Miller & Mary Kay 6 Kane, Federal Practice & Procedure § 1778 (2d ed. 1986)). The predominance requirement is 7 “readily met” in securities class actions. Amchem Prods., 521 U.S. at 625; see also Cooper Cos., 8 254 F.R.D. at 632 (“[S]ecurities fraud cases fit Rule 23 ‘like a glove.’”) (citation omitted).

9 Here, common questions of law and fact predominate over individual questions because 10 Defendants’ alleged fraudulent statements and omissions affected all Settlement Class Members 11 in the same manner (i.e., through public statements made to the market and documents publicly 12 filed with the SEC). Predominance of common questions generally will be found when, as 13 alleged here, “many purchasers have been defrauded over time by similar misrepresentations, 14 or by a common scheme to which alleged non-disclosures related.” Negrete v. Allianz Life Ins.
 15 Co. of N. Am., 238 F.R.D. 482, 492 (C.D. Cal. 2006) (citation omitted); see also In re First 16 Capital Holdings Corp. Fin. Prods. Sec. Litig., No. MDL-901, 1993 WL 144861, at *6 (C.D.
 17 Cal. Feb. 26, 1993) (“The Ninth Circuit has repeatedly found that common issues predominate 18 in federal securities actions where the proposed class members have all been injured by the 19 same alleged course of conduct.”) (citation omitted).

20 Moreover, class-wide reliance is established in this Action through the application of 21 Affiliated Ute Citizens of Utah v. United States, 406 U.S. 128 (1972), because the claims 22 asserted against Defendants are predicated upon omissions of material fact, which there was a 23 duty to disclose, or the “fraud-on-the-market” presumption of reliance in Basic v. Levinson, 485
 24 U.S. 224, 241-42 (1988). Application of Affiliated Ute or Basic dispenses with the requirement 25 that each Settlement Class Member prove individual reliance on Defendants’ alleged 26 misstatements and/or omissions. See id. at 241-42. In order to be entitled the Basic 27 presumption of reliance, the market for the security must be “efficient.” Id. at 248. Here, where 28 Extreme’s common stock is traded on the NASDAQ, a national securities exchange, and was

1 followed by numerous securities analysts and traded at regular substantial volumes, there is 2 sufficient evidence of market efficiency. See Amended Complaint at ¶¶ 430.

3 2. A Class Action Is a Superior Method of Adjudication

4 Finally, Rule 23(b)(3) also requires that the action be superior to other available methods
 5 for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The rule lists several matters pertinent 6 to this finding: (A) the class members' interests in individually controlling the prosecution or 7 defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the 8 controversy already begun by or against class members; (C) the desirability or undesirability of 9 concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; and (D) the likely difficulties 10 in managing a class action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)(A)-(D); see also Desai v. Deutsche Bank 11 Sec. Ltd, 573 F.3d 931, 937 (9th Cir. 2009). Each factor weighs in favor of superiority here.
 12 See, e.g., McPhail, 247 F.R.D. at 615 (noting "class action is the superior method for fair and 13 efficient adjudication" because individual suits would "'clog [] the federal courts with 14 innumerable individual suits litigating the same issues repeatedly,'" the plaintiffs assert 15 complex claims that "would be very costly to litigate," and each claim is for a "relatively small 16 amount") (alteration in original) (citation omitted).

17 Further, without the settlement class device, Defendants could not obtain a class-wide 18 release, and therefore would have had little, if any, incentive to settle. Certification of the 19 Settlement Class will allow the Settlement to be administered in an organized and efficient 20 manner. Accordingly, the Court should preliminarily certify the Settlement Class.

21 III. THE PROPOSED NOTICE PROGRAM SATISFIES RULE 23, DUE PROCESS, 22 AND THE PSLRA REQUIREMENTS

23 Lead Counsel proposes that notice be given to the Settlement Class in the form of the 24 mailed long-form Notice and the Summary Notice, which will both be published in a trade
 25 publication and be disseminated over the internet, which are attached as Exhibits A-1 and A-3 26 to the proposed Preliminary Approval Order. Notice to the Settlement Class in the form and in 27 the manner set forth in the proposed Preliminary Approval Order will fulfill the requirements of 28 due process and comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the PSLRA.

1 Rule 23(c)(2)(B) requires notice of the pendency of the class action to be “the best 2 notice practicable under the circumstances.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). It must be 3 “reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency 4 of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Central 5 Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 314 (1950). Notice must describe ““the terms of the 6 settlement in sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to come 7 forward and be heard.”” See, e.g., Lane v. Facebook, Inc., 696 F.3d 811, 826 (9th Cir. 2012)
 8 (quoting Rodriguez v. West Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 962 (9th Cir. 2009)). Lead Counsel 9 proposes to provide Settlement Class Members notice by: (i) individual first-class mailing of 10 the long-form Notice, addressed to all Class Members who can reasonably be identified and 11 located, using information provided by Extreme’s transfer agent, as well as information 12 provided by third party banks, brokers, and other nominees about their customers who may have 13 eligible purchases; (ii) publication of the Summary Notice in Investor’s Business Daily; and (iii) 14 dissemination of the Summary Notice on the internet using PR Newswire. See In re HP Sec.
 15 Litig., No. 12-cv-05980-CRB, 2015 WL 4477936, at *2 (N.D. Cal. July 20, 2015) (finding the 16 procedures for notice, including mailing individual notice and publication notice satisfy Rule 17 23, the PSLRA, and constitute the best notice practicable). The Notice will also be accessible 18 on the case website and Lead Counsel’s website. The Parties have conferred and while they do 19 not believe a notice under the Class Action Fairness Act is required in this Action, which is 20 governed by the Exchange Act, Defendants will be issuing a notice.

21 This proposed notice program is the “gold standard” in securities cases. Because of the 22 availability of name and address data for potential class members from third-party banks, 23 brokers, and nominees, and the Claims Administrator’s ability to reach potential class members 24 through individual mailed notice, Lead Counsel and the proposed Claims Administrator (which 25 has its own Legal Notification division that specializes in media notice via multi-channel 26 advertising) have conferred and determined that using social media or hiring an outside 27 marketing specialist would not be appropriate here. It is also the case that Extreme’s transfer 28

1 agent and the nominees are unlikely to have e-mail addresses for potential class members or, if 2 they have them, would be unwilling to provide them given privacy concerns.

3 In addition to the proposed methods of providing notice, the form and substance of the 4 notice program are also sufficient, and they were drafted to comply with the Court's Procedural 5 Guidance. The proposed forms of notice describe the terms of the Settlement and the 6 Settlement Class' recovery; the considerations that caused Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel to 7 conclude that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable; the maximum attorneys' fees and 8 expenses that may be sought; the procedure for requesting exclusion from the Settlement Class; 9 the procedure for objecting to the Settlement; the procedure for participating in the Settlement; 10 the proposed Plan of Allocation; and the date and place of the Settlement Hearing. See Ching v.
 11 Siemens Indus., Inc., No. 11-cv-4838 MEJ, 2013 WL 6200190, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 27, 2013) 12 (approving notice that "adequately describes the nature of the action, summarizes the terms of 13 the settlement, identifies the class and provides instruction on how to opt out and object, and 14 sets forth the proposed fees and expenses to be paid to Plaintiff's counsel and the settlement 15 administrator in clear, understandable language").

16 The long-form Notice also satisfies the PSLRA's separate disclosure requirements by, 17 inter alia, stating: (i) the amount of the Settlement determined in the aggregate and on an 18 average per share basis;¹³ (ii) that the Parties do not agree on the amount of damages that would 19 be recoverable in the event Lead Plaintiff prevailed; (iii) that Lead Counsel intends to make an 20 application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses (including the amount of such fees and 21 expenses determined on an average per share basis), and a brief explanation of the fees and 22 expenses sought; (iv) the name, telephone number, and address of a representative of counsel 23 for the Settlement Class who will be available to answer questions concerning any matter

 26 ¹³ As set forth in the Notice, the average recovery per allegedly damaged share of publicly 27 traded common stock of Extreme would be $0.05 per share before deduction of Court-approved 28 fees and expenses, such as attorneys' fees and expenses, and approximately $0.04 per share after deduction of attorneys' fees and expenses. These values are averages and individual investors' recoveries will differ, depending upon when they made purchase or sales, and whether they held their shares.

1 contained in the Notice; and (v) the reasons why the Parties are proposing the Settlement. See
 2 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(7)(A)-(F). The proposed Notice contains all of the information required 3 by the PSLRA. The Notices will, when mailed and published as provided for in the Preliminary 4 Approval Order submitted herewith, fairly apprise Settlement Class Members of the Settlement 5 and their options with respect thereto, and fully satisfy all due process requirements.

6 Finally, Lead Plaintiff also requests that the Court appoint KCC as the Claims 7 Administrator to provide all notices approved by the Court to Settlement Class Members, to 8 process Claim Forms, and to administer the Settlement. KCC is a recognized leader in legal 9 administration services for class action settlements and legal noticing programs and has 10 successfully administered numerous complex securities class action settlements. See Exhibit 5.
 11 In particular, KCC has administered over 6,500 class action settlements and handled thousands 12 of distribution engagements in other contexts. Their domestic infrastructure includes call centers 13 with over 1,200 seats, claims intake facilities that can open and scan 200,000 claims in a single 14 day, and document production capabilities that print and mail millions of documents annually.
 15 Last year, their disbursement services team distributed over half a trillion dollars. Id. Lead 16 Counsel has not engaged KCC within the past two years. Given the size of the Settlement, the 17 scope of the project, and Lead Counsel's experience with claims administration, proposals from 18 other administrators were not sought. (KCC was also retained before the revised Procedural 19 Guidance was issued.)

20 CONCLUSION

21 For the foregoing reasons, Lead Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court issue an 22 order substantially in the form of the proposed Preliminary Approval Order: (a) preliminarily 23 approving the Settlement; (b) holding that the manner and forms of notice set forth in the 24 Preliminary Approval Order satisfy due process and provide the best notice practicable under 25 the circumstances, and ordering that notice be provided to the Settlement Class; (c) setting a 26 date for the Settlement Hearing; (d) appointing KCC as Claims Administrator; (e) preliminarily 27 certifying the Settlement Class; and (f) granting such other and further relief as may be required.
